Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Business Miracles Academy

When you feel safe, your Soul is in the lead of your business. Your next level needs YOU to be SAFE inside. Not just 'on the surface'...

You are here for a reason.

You have a deep soul-fueled inner drive that you were born to contribute to change in this world. You have a gift, a message to share. You love your clients. You feel deep compassion for their lives and results. You already create deep transformation in their lives, minds, perhaps also their businesses, bodies and worklife.

You desire to lead in this world, as a human being and you facilitate deep change in society simply by being you and sharing your work. You value authenticity and integrity over anything. Every day you commit to contributing to a more human world.

The work you already do and have done proves you have a valuable gift. And now you're ready to own and BE that gift on a whole new level and take the next step in your journey towards a world of peace and harmony.

YOU ARE HERE TO HELP HEAL THE WORLD so that we can live here as the full humans we are, shamelessly show our gifts, add our contributions and live in abundance. You want to help build a world filled with harmony and opportunities for ALL HUMANS.

You are on the forefront of the global transformation, and you feel a deep calling to step UP.

And that stepping UP is calling you to share things you don;t really feel safe to share....

Deep down you KNOW it's possible to create a more peaceful world... but you also know a crucial piece is missing. It looks like everyone is waiting for everyone, and no one is allowing themselves to REALLY move, especially when it gets 'real'. As if we need permission ...

You have learnt many tools, and keep on adding and expanding your work. Yet it does feel like hard work sometimes. Lonely. Crying in a desert. Sure you see others stepping up. But somehow, it feels like there is so much f*cked up sh*t going on that you can feel ready to give up as well as feel inspired to move up! You haven't found 'the one tool' that helps you get to the other side and just brings relief instantly when you need it most. Mind-focused books, courses, programs, and certifications on the market. You have done them all. You crave simplicity and feeling enough simply in who you ARE!

If this is you, you sound like most of my clients!

You are ambitious, here to serve and you are always looking to become even more effective. You have implemented the tools when it comes to business. Mindset tools, strategy tools, systems. But... your next level is calling you for something else. It is calling you to feel safe being YOU. Showing YOU. Allowing people to see the FULL you.

Your next level is calling you into safety of your Soul. Is that possible?

YES, it IS! We need to stop looking to 'heal the problems', and start looking to strengthen the Soul, so that your business starts to flow through your presence. You need to BE in a different place, trust that and feel safe in it. THAT process is what you have been looking for. But to do that, you do need to understand trauma on a deeper level than just a 'series of unfortunate events'...

Let me assure you, you've found that missing link. This is the year program that will change everything. For you, for your clients, and for everyone who knows you.

I'm Suze Maclaine Pont,

Creator of the Business Miracles Academy and Founder of the Academy of Soul Healing. I am originally trained as a shipbuilding engineer and also mother to two beautiful humans of 16 and 18. My journey on becoming a therapist and business coach did not start out with me wanting to become a coach let alone a therapist, but simply for me to heal my own journey. For me to feel safe being me. Between other people.

At 23 I was suicidal. I didn't see what I was here for, what I was contributing to and why I should stay. It was a very dark place. At 25 I re-committed to life, yet I also vowed that I was going to find out how to truly LIVE and not merely survive. I truly wanted to understand what it was I am doing here and how to embrace life as fully as possible. So I went deep. I studied transactional analysis, trauma therapy, nlp, family constellations, compassionate inquiry and psychosynthesis among other methods. I went ALL IN. For my own sanity and survival at first, leading to deep peace today.

When the people in the innovation projects I worked on started to ask me entirely different questions - about relationships and life - I started to see that my true contribution was not in the tasks I was asked to do, but in the person I was becoming. My presence was what healed and helped other people to become more effective. Not the 'things I did'.

Once I started to truly appreciate that, I changed my business and became a coach, a trainer, and I shifted my work to helping people step into who they were meant to be from day 1.

Some people claim I am 'a LOT' to deal with.

I am highly gifted, always expanding, associating on new ideas, creating new meaning and wanting to know more, deeper and connecting everything. My number one key strength is learning, and I am interested in just about everything. I always want to go to the core, take all the courses and fully understand what I am doing. Not just theoretically, but also from my own experience. Meaning I have been through all the healing you can possibly imagine and have over 20 years experience transforming people's souls, hearts, minds, and businesses.

I have been a business owner for 24 years, and I have gone from suicidal to thriving and all the ups and downs inbetween. My grandmother always said I have been through more than she had in her life (she was 93 when she said it and had experienced two world wars).

The reason I am seriously great at what I do is because I take my own medicine over and over again, I teach what I DO, as well as KNOW what I am doing.

I combine experience with deep knowledge and pour that into BEING - not merely understanding - what safety really is. That is what I will teach you to do as foundation of your business too!

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Business Miracles Academy

My unique soul-focused method gets deeper results than any other program, because it is designed to build your business on the only thing you can and will ever fully control: who you are, how you feel safe and who you are meant to be as a human being! Simply being and trusting YOU and connecting with your Soul in ways you have never imagined.

Most coaches and people talk about mindset being the 'be all and end all' of change in how we act and feel. And even though our mind and how we think impacts our life, hardly anyone understands fully how our nervous system impacts our thinking and feeling process.

The coaches that call themselves 'trauma informed' talk about healing trauma and use 'tools' to 'fix' the broken thing. That sounds great, yet... trauma doesn't work that way.

We can't fix the broken thing. We need to enhance the part that survived in the first place, and start to strengthen THAT. The Soul will then allow the body to move through trauma.

Most business coaches will talk about mindset, energy or even about nervous system. Yet... only form a place of creating a better 'feel good' place. And yes, we need to feel good, great even! But more than that, we need to find our true own self foundation and connect with our Soul in order to fully trust, fully let God (versus simply letting go). We need to do way more than 'get this' or 'understand'. We need to reconnect to Soul. And allow Soul to take over.

That's why the SOUL is the key to moving through it and the key to leading your results.

Most people are taught to 'feel the fear and do it anyway'. But what if you could feel SAFE and do it?

Merely allowing the fear to be present, and then suppressing it and making ourselves pumped up is NOT what will give you courage! Feeling safe is. We are never taught that our belly actually contains more brain cells than our brain does. They literally tell our brain what to think, and what images and stories to create, given every situation stored in our body. Our mind is a meaning-making machine. So our body is constantly referring to old experiences, and telling the mind what emotions and literally what thoughts to produce, until we can allow ourselves to move through that.

We really need to create an entire NEW set of experiences in order for the body to work WITH us in a new way if we want to heal. And feelsafe showing up as US.

Which is why for our next level, we should not work with the TRAUMA, or mindset, but with the HEALTH of the system, the Soul.

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Business Miracles Academy

The minute we apply SoulHealing as an integrative tool to our own business, our business starts to generate the results the Soul was meant to create on this planet. Soul Healing is an integrative healing approach to restore your nervous system so that you will never act from fear, not even unconscious fear, let alone 'mindset'. It combines evidence-based, scientific, spiritual, and energetic principals which result in deeper and faster shifts than mind-based techniques are able to offer. In SoulHealing, we use a very specific series of steps that help anyone to access the healthy systems, and allow your body to move through the trauma, so you don't have to. And so that the trauma can;t try to control your results, but your Soul shows up and heals your energy and THAT leads your results.

SoulHealing isn't just a repackaged and rebranded version of an existing tool or trick. It's a truly innovative approach to healing born out of my extensive personal embodied and professional experience of healing the Soul. And the Souls wisdom taking over the lead in business.

We will cover all the basic areas of trauma and pull the marketing, strategies and results out of your work so that you can start to trust what to do, how to regenerate your energy when you need it and USE your own true voice.

We don't 'heal the broken parts of your business, we use the Soul as a tool for generating results.

Suze Maclaine Pont

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Spotting what is broken is easy. Going for 'results' is easy. Trusting and showing up from your calling is an entirely different ballgame.

The tools enable the Soul to speak instead of the unconscious mind, and reveal the client's strength and help you build that strength. Spotting the trauma and seeing what went wrong is easy. Deeply understanding how to get OUT is an entirely different thing and even though it is simple, it is not a 'trick' or tool. It is a matter of your nervous system helping to heal theirs.

Once you can allow yourself to be connected with your Soul, your business will start guiding YOU and results will come so fast you can hardly keep up!

When you experience that level of health in your own system, when your Soul is truly in the lead by choice, every time, and once you can offer that kind of deep transformation to your clients, both their and your personal life will start to take a turn you can't even imagine right now. You and they will truly get access over your true potential. Your Soul's wisdom, and all the gifts you came into this world with.

😊 No hard work spread out over weeks, months or years before your business shows transformation. You will see and feel immediate transformation after every session and your business will start to transform accordingly!

😊 No questions inside your own mind whether you are "enough" or fearing if your client will get results or not... you will BE the certainty, and KNOW before you see proof

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Business Miracles Academy

The first step to owning your true gifts is to feel safe, and enable yourself to simply BE and let your actions pour out of you from there. With ease.

It is your presence that inspires your clients, not your 'tricks and tools'. This might feel easy and like a sigh of relief... or it might take some parts of you to work through resistance. (My GOD had I deep work to do on myself...I hid behind the idea of "doing things" to feel safe before fully stepping into simply being 'me' and using my beingness and energy and who I truly AM)

The fact is, your nervous system is your tool. Not your marketing or funnel..... It is your presence, your ability to regulate your own system and your simply 'being' that does the real work, not your tools or knowledge or even your words and message.

The more comfortable YOU are with your own presence, the more you love you, the more attracted your clients will be to your energy and the more they will want to buy. Simply because they want to be in your energy! It is safe to be generous once your own trauma is not pulling you anymore!

Do you have a deep desire to become truly successful and create a strong and deep impact in the world? A humans being, known for the simple, authentic, profound and quick results their clients experience every single time just because YOU are YOU?

Do you want your work to be so impactful it creates an effect that spreads out and lights up the people your clients interact with and thus spreads out into the entire world?

Do you know deep down you have the potential to become truly great simply by being who you truly are and having your Soul lead both you and your business?

Are you ready to start your journey on this planet where your Divine Soul is in charge taking others with you in your wake?

It is safe to be you and to show yourself fully. It is safe to say yes to your true potential and step into your next level. I am right there with you!

BUSINESS MIRACLES ACADEMY

PART 1: Feeling Safe as Foundation to grow you Business

We live in a world of polarities. Immense growth and severe poverty. Immense wealth and success and bashing of rich people. Immense luxury and severe climate problems. You want to build a better future for this planet. You want to create impact, you want to use your potential and want to show up as your true self and inspire. You are called to step UP. And yet... it simply doesn't feel safe to follow that calling...

We follow courses, work hard, build great mindset skills, teams, strategies but eventually we will get to a level where we must face that TRULY showing up with the truth of who we are simply doesn't feel safe. And yes, of course we can build fences around our heart becoming an inaccessible rockstar, but if you were here to serve as your human self, that might not be what you want.

If it would feel safe, showing up with who you are is easy. Most of us are not fully being who we ARE because it simply doesn't feel safe.....

I deeply know and believe that the only way to help others is to connect. Not to shove our products or egos down their throat, but to generously serve and help, and first and foremost, to BE the answer that we want to SEE in the world.

But if BEING that answer triggers old trauma and a sense of unsafety, then there is no system in the world that can help you other than your nervous system.

That requires us as entrepreneurs to connect deeply with our own foundation. Our roots. Not so much our birth roots, but our Soul roots. God, the Divine. So that our true Souls voice, our own inner wisdom, and who we are meant to be can show up, allow our Soul to heal and lead and serve our purpose, create impact and help others. That's why it is truly crucial to go deep and learn how to regulate your own nervous system before you even START to think of showing up with what others need to hear from you.

I want you to become so skilled in regenerating and tapping into your own soul, that you BECOME the safety. That's what will create the deepest transformation. Also in your clients.

Part 1 our Business Miracles Academy therefore is centered around the basic things WE need to do in create to regulate our own nervous system while showing up in our business. The difference between truly showing up from safety or trying to 'get to safety' has to do with the state of our own nervous system and our ability to be fully present with whatever is triggered in ourselves. Nothing else.

The Business Miracles Academy helps you become so human that your clients are simply invited into your space where you are healed, safe and able to receive.

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Business Miracles Academy

We work on:

1. Fear and Trust
2. Attachment to outcomes and control
3. Shame and Intimacy
4. Dissociation and 'hiding'

Once we truly navigate these areas ourselves, these are things that will become possible:

- Repair the connection with your Soul
- Heal trauma and find forgiveness for abuse, abandonment, neglect
- Recover from addictions around money, procrastination, stress, working hard, control and other self-abusive systems...
- Find inner peace and a deep sense of enoughness
- Develop DEEP clarity, certainty, transparency and confidence in your work
- Heal from imposter syndrome, procrastination and self sabotage
- Connect with your true full Souls power
- Get rid of doubt and enable yourself to choose with inner certainty and confidence
- Trust life and your inner guidance and intuition!
- Navigate fear as your inner guidance to find your Souls power and voice
- Use your Soul's Voice and speak up when you truly need to and want to
- Create deep relationships and connection in your team
- Heal your money and receiving wounds and allow abundance in your life, not just in money, but in all areas.

PART 2: Showing up in the world from who you ARE versus what you 'do' or 'have'

Once you truly feel safe inside your own system, you will become a masterful entrepreneur with unwavering confidence. So then, how do you build systems around YOU to share from safety, trust and inspire others without burning out?

I don't just want you to learn about your foundation and your voice, nor merely 'systems. I want the systems to support YOU and your Souls expansion. I want you to master regulating your own nervous system and I want your business to be set up in a way that will facilitate that expansion. That requires very different systems than the ones we are taught by the guru's out there. It requires systems from the inside out rather than result oriented systems.

The Academy has been set up to provide exceptional systems to support unwavering confidence. That will enable you to follow your inner guidance, feeling safe and secure and simply allowing the results to follow that internal flow.

Part 2 of the Business Miracles Academy is centered around the basic blocks we need to help move through and regulate our nervous system through the way we built our business systems. There are many parts to building your business, most of which have nothing to do with you or who you are. Marketing, sales, automations. And yet they do need to support your nervous system in order for them to expand your work in the world.

The Business Miracles Academy helps you become so human that your clients are simply invited into a space where transformation starts to happen, while supporting YOU to step UP.

Here's how you'll develop mastery in stepping into your full potential:

1. In-depth understanding in how your business supports YOU and not just your clients
2. Mastermind on group calls (in the months between the 4-day sessions) about how to get your clients the best results whatever issue they're facing, so you always feel supported in your practice

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT SOULHEALING BUSINESS ACADEMY...

“One hour of working with Suze was more powerful than over 10 years of working with other therapists.”

“The missing link to any work I have done before, I truly want to add this to my own skills!”

“Extremely powerful work, but not for the faint of heart”

“I thought I knew what letting go was until I met Suze!”

“I am blown away, I seriously never could have expected anything this deep in one hour!”

“The most profound thing ever experienced (despite years of therapy)”

“25 years of being a psychotherapist myself and I have never experienced this deep level of work”

“Suze finds connections and wounds I never even KNEW where there, let alone that they could have been attached to these areas”

Would you stay in prison if the door was wide open?

Joining The Business Miracles Academy will provide you with all the tools to feel safe, and BE the person and hold the energy that facilitates your business growth.

Stepping into your full potential is a lifelong journey. It is not a 'mindset' fix.

So you need to fully integrate your own growth with your business so that your business starts to support your expansion and your expansion becomes the centre of attraction for your clients and results. And it becomes safe to share that entire process.

Truly stepping UP is not for the faint of heart. It is way deeper than simply 'feeling fear' and doing sh*t. It is about being the change, and owning your full self without making any of it about you. It is about generously sharing from your heart and your Soul and connecting deeply. No ego walls. No bragging. Just sharing of your TRUEST self. Without holding back.

That fine line is your navigation. You have the inner compass to do it. As long as you learn to read your nervous system, and build your business from that.

It is for people who are willing to BE the tool. That means that it is for people who know that trauma is a lifelong journey of unfolding, where your Soul will lead your path. Not a path of 'knowing' or 'getting there' or 'being able to do it all alone'.

To see if you are a fit, click below and book your call with Sophie, our lead-coach, and ask any questions you might have about the certification program or logistics:

Click this link here if you want to say yes and book, but still have hesitations. Sophie will help you work through what is best for you.

We have limited spaces available, so don't miss your chance to expand in safety. I cannot wait to work with you and support you and your business.

Business Miracles Retreat

A five-day seminar on the essence of building your business from your true core.

Businesses need systems. Systems for marketing, sales, accounting, operations. And all these systems will allow the flow of your business to fully facilitate both your clients as well as your own needs.

And yet... your business needs to set up systems that allow YOU to thrive. Not just the 'logical things'. Not all systems work for everyone. Specially not if the systems are not tailored to YOUR energy, your growth and your nervous system.

Over five days, we will develop an understanding of systems, development and learn to understand how developing systems that allow for regulation as well as deep connections, and that allow us to truly step into safety whatever happens!

Important: This seminar is a teaching seminar but also a DEEP personal development seminar. We will do a lot of deep processing during the seminar around who you are, shame, fear, your needs, your voice and what it feels like to fully be supported being you!

Venue: Hoeve de Kempe - Haanstraat 8 - Voorst the Netherlands

Price:

Full week: ~~€5.555~~ currently €4.444 if paid in full
