Why choose this program?

- ✨ Not only let go of past triggers, but deeply learn how to create such deep palpable memories of your future that your future will be pulling you towards it instead of that your past keeps pulling you back
- ✨ Heal your nervous system so that you will build such a deep healthy foundation that triggers don;t have to be avoided, but actually become moments where the foundation grows instead of weakens.
- ✨ Create the life your Soul was always meant to live, deep connection, harmony purpose and joy where your resistance starts to work WITH you instead of against you.
- ✨ Create a trustworthy inner compass that guides you in every step of whatever life throws at you after the retreat.
- ✨ Discover the transformative power within yourself of being so present with yourself that your presence heals not just you but everyone around you.
- ✨ Embrace a deeply compassionate and human approach that combines deep human psychology, empathy, spirituality, and trauma therapy to facilitate authentic and deeply transformational results
- ✨ Create deep certainty and unwavering confidence in your ability to lead your life from a place of complete trust, while deeply understanding what life is requiring you to do
- ✨ Create permanent change and huge shifts in as little as one week
- ✨ Move beyond the mind and the 'understanding' of what happened, connect with your Soul as your guide to healing, regenerate your nervous system and create a healthy foundation so that you feel complete again, able to navigate life from harmony, purpose and joy!
- ✨ Fulfill your own purpose on the deepest level by creating a world of peace, harmony and joy filled with equal opportunities for all humans.

Once you allow the voice of your Soul to be fully present, you allow yourself to be heard, seen and expressed and that's something the world needs more than ever right now

You are here for a reason. Not just to 'survive'...

You did not come to this planet to just 'take up space'. You were made for more. You are capable of more. You are ready for more. Your Soul is craving. Yet your life feels stuck...

You are in a transition, and despite that you KNOW deep down it is time, NOW, you feel resistance. You feel that you need to figure things out. Fix things. And sometimes you are SO tired of that. Because when does that ever end?

All the personal development had helped, and yet... does that never end? You want a break. But NOT growing might be even harder....

You want relief. Yet all the places you have looked somehow only give a bit of mindsoothing. The true relief you are craving always seems just out of reach. And yet so palpable inside. Maybe you even doubt if it is truly meant for you... you are not ready to give up. You ARE made for more. Yet HOW?!

If this is you, you sound like most of my clients!

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

I'm Suze Maclaine Pont,

Hi, I'm Suze Maclaine Pont, internationally recognized Trauma Specialist, Business Coach and pioneer in the world of authentic living, entrepreneurship, money mindset and creating business from your soul's purpose without compromise.

I believe that what you set out to do in this world is a sacred, soul-driven process that is simple and authentic. I am living proof that you can easily make money and make an impact by doing what YOU love and care about. I am also the living proof that you can overcome any pain from your past. In my twenties I was suicidal, did not value anything in myself and honestly didn't see any way out. I lived week by week, during periods of deep depression and anxiety. And I overcame ALL of it.

I am the living proof that you can clear all your fears and blocks from the past, that you can invoke a flow of love in your life (no matter what happened) and you can fully participate in connection with life and the people around you. And you don't have to work 80 hours a week for that, you don't have to sacrifice your relationships or children (or whatever in your life) for that. And that does not involve feelings of fear or emptiness.

We are taught from an early age that we should 'set goals'. That we have to 'go for something', and when that is achieved, THEN there is a reward. But..... what if after each goal you achieve you start running AGAIN? What if you feel rushed, stressed or anxious and connection with others is not always obvious? What if you are always living on the verge of burning out? If you doubt your goals? Do you often feel like a stranger in this world, while you have a lot to bring?

The price is just too high. It should be easier!

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Some people claim I am 'a LOT' to deal with.

I am highly gifted, always expanding, associating with ideas, creating new meaning and wanting to know more, deeper and connecting everything. My number one key strength is learning, and I am interested in just about everything. I always want to go to the bottom, take all the courses and fully understand what I am doing. Not just theoretically, but also from my own experience. Meaning I have been through all the healing you can possibly imagine and have over 20 years experience transforming people's souls, hearts, minds, and businesses.

I have been a business owner for 24 years, and I have gone from suicidal to thriving and all the ups and downs inbetween. My grandmother always said I have been through more than she had in her life (she was 93 when she said it and had experienced two world wars).

The reason I am seriously great at what I do is because I take my own medicine over and over again, I teach what I DO, as well as KNOW what I am doing.

I combine experience with deep knowledge and pour that into BEING. That is what I will teach you to do too!

The problem is, we simply never learned how goal setting and creating a vision for our life REALLY works! We do set goals, but are those the goals YOUR SOUL really wants? Are they ACTUALLY creating your future? The future you were meant to live? Or are they based on memories and pain of your past?

We learn from an early age that other people's goals (school, parents, people around us) are more important than our inner goals. And you are so different already. So to stay connected we learn to adapt our goals to the people around us. We start creating our future from memories of our past and external focus rather than from a vision of our true souls's future. In the hope that in this way we achieve success and create happiness.

You even think that's what you really want.

Except, it's SO HARD! Peace and deep relaxation is hard to find in your life. You are not really satisfied with what you achieve. Even when you MEET your goals, there is restlessness, anxiety, fear. You have a nice story and it all looks fine from the outside, but what YOU want deep inside can trigger all kinds of anxious feelings inside yourself. Fear of losing connection. Fear of emptiness. Fear of losing everything if you let go.

What is missing in your life and goal setting process is your Soul's True Vision. Yes, the scary one. The one that your ego has a hard time actually believing and embracing.

Most people are never taught that our belly actually contains more brain cells than our brain does. They literally tell our brain what to think, and what images and stories to create, given every situation stored in our body. Our mind is a meaning-making machine. So our body is constantly referring to old experiences, and telling the mind what emotions and literally what thoughts to produce, until we can allow ourselves to move through that.

There are many systems out there trying to 'cut' these two loose. And that can be helpful for a while. But we really need to create an entire NEW set of experiences in order for the body to work WITH us in a new way if we want to heal.

We CANNOT create freedom by putting ourselves aside and 'fighting for' something.

What we NEED to do is remove all the internal barriers that we have placed between ourselves and freedom. Then our life unfolds by itself. Not from our past, but from what our soul came to DO here. From a vision of our future instead of from the memories of our past.

The thing is this:

We CAN only create things in our lives that we can imagine in our minds first. If we can create a real inner experience about it. So we MUST set goals. We learn to set those goals from our past experience. And that won't get you anywhere... because the strategies of our past have lead you to where you are today. Nowhere else!

So to create NEW things we CANNOT use the old strategies. But what CAN we do?

We will have to imagine a new future that we have NOT experienced yet. A future where we don't have a CLUE what we have to 'do' to create it. We are going down an unknown path. And in order to do that we must learn to have certainty in OURSELVES.

Goals are therefore only points of reference that move with the steps we take and the events in our lives. I teach you to take those steps from a certainty inside of YOU. And so, in that dance between who we are and what is happening around us, constantly setting our own direction, we create our lives.

Creating a vision for your life, setting goals, doesn't have to be scary, complicated or difficult. In this immensely powerful retreat, I will take you on a journey of inner shifts and powerful strategies that will activate your ability to create miracles and allow the flow of life in each area of your life and each part of who you are.

Suze Maclaine Pont

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

We will go so deep that achieving what you write down here WILL come true. Feeling GREAT. No doubts. No if's. No but's. No anxiety. No maybe. Just certainty. Trust. Purpose. Joy. Love.

Would you stay in prison if the door was wide open?

The tools I teach at the retreat will enable the Soul to speak instead of the unconscious mind, and reveal your true core strength and help you build that strength as a solid foundation.

We will then also work on how to bring your survival patterns IN, so they start to HELP you instead of accidentally pulling or weighing you down. They are NOT the 'enemy', they are the solution. So we will onboard them to a degree where you will actually start to USE them.

Spotting and trying to fight or fix patterns and trauma and seeing what went wrong is easy. Deeply understanding how to get OUT is an entirely different thing and even though it is simple, it is not a 'trick' or tool. It is a matter of your nervous system helping to heal theirs.

More importantly: it is a matter of refinding your Souls voice, so that you can fully trust your SELF. And look forward to the life that is unfolding in front of you.

Who is the Divine Warrior Retreat for?

I work with mostly highly gifted, extremely talented men and women, just like you, who have incredible gifts and are here to make this world the most beautiful place you can imagine, through your gifts, your work and who you are deep inside. The only problem is that on some level you are stuck and scared to fully create and embody that vision.

- Afraid that the transition to the next level will involve sacrifices you don't want to make, choices you can't foresee the consequences of.
- Afraid you might not be able to.
- Afraid of being alone.
- Afraid that you are already so different and if you start showing yourself you will lose everything and everyone.
- Afraid that no one is really interested in the real you.
- Afraid you're not enough.
- Afraid of losing everything if you let go.
- Afraid to leave the safe place you've built so far.

You feel anxious, without necessarily knowing the reason. Paralysed. On a hamster wheel. Maybe not in ALL areas in life. Maybe some are ok. But the entirety of your life is more something you are trying to push towards than that you know HOW to embrace the vision and MAKE it happen, no questions asked.

You see 'big' people effortlessly creating a good life, being in joy, hitting their goals, feeling happy, understanding what they are doing and where they are going and wondering what magic formula they have that you don't?!

You know somewhere deep down that you have A LOT MORE to offer, you just don't know how to focus your energy. How you relate to others. You set goals, you tackle things, and yet... you feel out of control in many parts of life. You've done all the courses, so you're convinced that you should just stop complaining and start DOING what you KNOW.

Suze Maclaine Pont

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

But.... what if that was NOT the problem? What if there's something you DON'T know that you're holding on to?

The thought that you are stuck, that you are different, that your way is not understood or that you do not know what you really want or how to get there in deep connection with the people around you, brings you down. Wouldn't it be great if you knew you could make everything a great success without any resistance? That you could grow your Life's Vision effortlessly in an AUTHENTIC way and simply live your life in connection with the people around you?

The Divine Warrior Retreat is the most powerful retreat in this field, which will give you the inner shifts and simple strategies you need to consistently create flow and detach yourself at every level from the expectations of others and your old imprints.

We will create a place within you of deep alignment with who you are, create a FULL Vision for your life, the life your Soul craves and the life you set out to live on this planet. In ALL area's of life.

We will create certainty and joy in you, and we will remove all blocks and create a plan very precisely tailored to YOU. A plan that feels easy and joyful. We're not going to 'plan and chase' that next level, but we'll teach you a way in which it will unfold in interaction with life that is constantly flowing. And we teach you how to deeply anchor that certainty in yourself so that you don't lose the connection with yourself as you walk around the world.

I bet you're thinking, "Suze, how can you do that in a week-long retreat?!"

It is not just a retreat. It is more comparable to a change process of a year. You achieve things in one week that some people don't even achieve in a year's journey. It took me 40 years to get to the point where we will get you in just 1 week. My clients are always amazed at the value of this retreat, compared to the programs and counseling they have spent ten thousand euros or more on. It is LITERALLY the process that took me from a suicidal mess to a deeply authentic, loving, purpose driven successful wife, mother and entrepreneur.

Here's what you can expect:

- Regenerate your own nervous system and trauma so that you will experience huge shifts in yourself, your relationships and your business
- Feel COMPLETE and create deeper connections, love, and inner peace than you ever thought possible
- A FULL Vision for your Life, based on excitement for the future rather than painful memories of the past
- Your intentions, to all come true, every time you come up with something and put it out in the universe, it just "works out" without you having to work hard for it or chase after it
- Confidence in who you are being and never again choosing and directing your own lifeflow complicated and do you keep it off until....goal x is achieved or.....
- Living in true and deep alignment with your Divine Soul, and feeling truly and deeply free to do things YOUR way
- Use your intuition and actually receive AND be the loving support that you want to be and need without any fear of losing people
- A BEAUTIFUL life where you are able to step into the future with confidence even if you don't quite know exactly what it entails
- Certain about what exactly you want to achieve, which path you are walking or want to walk, or do you lack confidence when it comes to growing your business and how it aligns with other areas of your life
- Living for yourself, truly supporting yourself with deep love and connection, so that you are able to show up for others from abundance, care and connection
- Attract clients who just feel a big yes when they meet you and confidently charge for the true value transformation you provide

WHETHER YOU ARE A MAN, WOMAN, YOUNG, OLD, LEADER OR PROFESSIONAL THE DIVINE WARRIOR RETREAT HAS BEEN DESIGNED WITH PEOPLE AT HEART WHO ARE HERE TO EXPRESS MORE OF WHO THEY TRULY ARE.

Like many of the people I work with, you've probably realized that how you live your life, how you run your work, relationships, business, how happy you are, and how you make choices and prioritize your life is an essential part of creating a successful life, and running a successful business. And that emotions and resistance greatly limit your potential!

You want to live from a place where who you are, what you do and how you live are deeply aligned, so you can unleash your talent, the sales pour in and you feel a deep connection with the people around you. But what you're currently doing to achieve that isn't working...

★ Can you even imagine a place where that stuck feeling, all this resistance and that whole sense of not having certainty, constantly doubting yourself or spending money on the next course could turn into internal support?

★ Do you want your work to be so impactful it creates an effect that spreads out and lights up the people your clients interact with and thus spreads out into the entire world?

★ Do you know deep down you have the potential to become truly great simply by being who you truly are and having your Soul lead you?

★ Are you ready to start your journey on this planet where your Divine Soul is in charge taking others with you in your wake?

Imagine... that

1. you create your Life's Vision from effortless choices, without compromises, and build your business from a place of space, rest, abundance, fulfillment, no effort, just deep inner peace and connection
2. you understand all your emotions, know where they are coming from and learn how REALLY deal with them – instead of suppressing them and fighting them
3. you know exactly what to do when self-sabotage or resistance occurs, not by fighting it, but by becoming best friends with these inner parts
4. you feel aligned with your true mission on this planet and know exactly how to build the life that suits YOU have
5. you have an internal compass and you KNOW how it works and how to use it!

These are the exact results of myself and my clients who once had as much trouble planning, making choices and being true to yourself in the midst of life as you do.

Miracles are possible for you!

This is where the Divine Warrior Retreat can change your life and business, transforming your energy from spinning in circles and driven by fear, doubt and uncertainty to clarity, certainty, brings harmony, purpose and joy!

What is included in the Divine Warrior Retreat?

1 full week with Suze Maclaine Pont in her own private home

The Divine Warrior Retreat is a full 7 day program where we awaken the Divine Warrior in you. The warrior who comes to bring the Divine in you to this earth. We look at all areas of life and investigate what YOU want in them and create your FULL Life's Vision. We determine what the first step is and what is holding you back. We have all kinds of special processes, meditations and experiences to conjure up your deepest desire and to transform your resistance into your greatest source of support.

This week you will be supported on all levels: physically, mentally, emotionally, spiritually. We take care of EVERYTHING including your bed this week and give you an absolute TOP experience.

There are 4 main parts to the retreat:

1. Going deep in your Souls Vision and bringing it down into every cell of your life
2. Reconnecting with your Souls Voice so that you cannot just feel it inside, but USE it to create your life
3. Healing your past so that it will support you instead of pull you back
4. Integrate and create a plan so that you WILL step into this version of you when you get back home

Once we truly navigate these areas ourselves, these are things that will become possible:

- A week fully catered in Suze's private home with all the guidance you need from Suze and Jakko.
- A private chef who optimally supports your entire process from breakfast to dinner.
- Powerful rituals that unlock your true potential.
- Powerful processes to bring out your resistance and transform that into support
- Simple processes that you can use every time you get stuck in life
- A plan that will take home that is irreversible. What you write down here WILL happen!
- A lot of surprises!!

Suze Maclaine Pont

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

This is what the program will roughly look like

A big part of this week is that we will take over the way you are cared for in a way that will help you to fully sink into your own process. Which means I can;t tell you all the details fully without taking away of the experience.

But I do know that you want and need to know certain things.
So here are a few things:

You will sleep in a nearby place, where we will pick you up early in the morning.
After pick up we will do a deep meditation followed by a walk in nature and breakfast
After breakfast we have a morning session where we connect you with your Soul and go through all areas of life .

We have a nourishing lunch, and then you have afternoons off.
You can walk in nature, rest here, journal, sit outside and contemplate. We can bring you back to the sleeping venue.

We meet again at diner and eat together, after which we have a deeply transformative evening session.

All sessions are designed so that you sink into your own private journey.
There is sharing, but never a need to share thing syou are uncomfortable with. My way of working never requires you to talk if you don;t want to. There are many ways to process. I know all of them.

There are no exercises in pairs, it is all individual deep work, and even though there will be deep healing in the group, and through witnessing each other's process, you are always in control, safe and never pressured into things you are not ready for.

The group is small, intimate and hand selected.

You will have your own sacred private 'island' in the room where you keep your own belongings, and no one else will have to sit close unless you want them to.

After a few days we have a very special day that is not easy to describe without giving away too much but there we practice stepping back into life in a special way and allow ourselves to let go.

And the last days we integrate the vision into a 'plan' that is not just on paper, but deeply engrained into your body, so that back home you WILL be able to take the steps. Not only because you are committed, but because your old resistance systems will be behind it, and helping you instead of pulling you back into familiar patterns.

Here's how you'll develop mastery:

1. In-depth work on your Souls vision
2. Guided meditations that will help you clear your mind and your body from all old information
3. In depth contemplation on who you are meant to be
4. Deep healing work so that all doors to the past are closed able to work FOR you instead of against you
5. Integration practices that will engrain your body so that it doesn;t just 'know' but truly does what you planned
6. A deep connection with people on the same path that will stay with you forever

The 'sliding scale' - how it works and why we offer it

(I got this concept from Alexis J. Cunniffolk. Read more about it here: <https://www.wortsandcunning.com/blog/sliding-scale>).

We all come from different socio-economic backgrounds and we have all had different financial privileges in our lives. How well-off you are has little to do with how hard you work and a lot to do with sheer luck in people around you, opportunities on your path and support you were given to make the best of your talents. Some people have two jobs and are trying to pay off student loans and a mortgage and make ends meet, others have an inheritance and no debts. That's just the way the world is.

Offering sliding scale is essentially making services available to people who are not as fortunate as others when it comes to money. When we offer our services, the full price is the true cost of the service. We charge that amount to earn a fair wage, to pay our costs and suppliers and staff, and to deliver this service sustainably. We also firmly believe in making our offering available to more people - our work is a creation of love and we firmly believe in the contribution we make to this world.

If you purchase the retreat at a lower rate than the full rate, you get a discount on the actual price of the service.

We require no income verification and rely 100% on trust in this process. Pay in proportion to where you fall on the sliding scale of the green bottle (see picture below) - no questions asked.

The sliding scale represents the idea that financial resources, including income, are not and should not be the solely determinant of whether or not someone can access services/care/etc. In doing so, we need to keep looking at the difference between sacrifice and deprivation: If paying for a class, product or service would be difficult but not detrimental, then it qualifies as a sacrifice. You might have to cut back on other expenses in your life (like eating out, buying coffee or a new outfit), but this will not have a detrimental impact on your life in the long run. It is a sacred sacrifice to pursue something you are called to. However, if paying for a class, product or service would lead to a harmful impact on your life, such as not being able to put food on the table, pay rent or pay for your transport to go to work, then you are dealing with deprivation.

So if you can afford the full price, you are not only helping us here at the Divine Warrior Retreat to offer a service that you find useful for yourself, but you are also helping to make it sustainably available to people who are not as financially well-off as you, for whatever reason.

Suze Maclaine Pont

Trauma Specialist & Business Coach

Keep in mind that if you buy at the lower end of the scale, when you can really afford the higher ticket prices, you limit access for those who really need the gift of financial flexibility.

(I used to struggle with money and I remember times when I could not pay electricity or phone bills, even though I was a breadwinner with two children.) There is a lot of shame associated with not always being able to make ends meet, when in fact we all did what we could to provide. This experience has made me enormously aware of this problem and I want to address it in this small way I can contribute).

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT SOULHEALING...

"I joined the retreat to find my true purpose in life. Always overwhelmed at every new thing I started, sick and tired of searching and never finding end ending up in the same 'stuck' cycle. did not join the retreat to heal my digestive system. It had been causing problems for 7 years, and I was certain that was simply a 'fact of life'. Within that one week, it all turned around though. THAT was a true miracle. Beyond anything I could have ever expected. I knew I would learn to digest life. But this? The biggest gift!"

"I had problems getting pregnant, wanted change in life, did not know what to focus on anymore or even wether I wanted children. I felt stuck, and just wanted a new sense of direction. I was looking for answers on what direction to take my life if I couldn;t have children. That was all I hoped for. The week after the retreat I was pregnant with my first child!"

"I was looking for answers on how to navigate a severe situation with my family. There were huge problems between me and my siblings, my parents, my spouse got involved and it caused me enormous stress. I just wanted to forget about all of it, and follow my own path and cut myself off. Suze taught me how to love them for who THEY are and truly open my heart without needing to change them OR myself. I am SO grateful for this!!! It changed everything"

"I was depressed, wanted change and thought Suze would help me make a big decision on wether or not to stay in my marriage or follow a new course on my own. In reality, I deeply learned to see what this marriage was showing me about my relationship with my Soul, how I was hiding from myself and how I was able to become not just "happy" but find true bliss that is still with me to this day"

"I grew up with a narcissistic mom and that influenced all the relationships I had. I was always avoiding triggers, unconsciously controlling my environment and I was tired, lonely, afraid and honestly desperate. I was certain nobody could ever understand see or hear me. Until I met Suze and joined this retreat. All I can say is WOW. I never knew that I could actually connect. I never knew I had power over my own emotions in connection with other people. I never knew my path was actually helping me. I never knew. I am forever grateful. Forever!"

"All my life I had been working on 'being in and finding control'. I went to the retreat to create better systems to control my life. What I got was a system to find peace without having control. I have no words. I could never have asked for what I apparently was looking for all along! Suze has changed my life and that of my kids, my wife, my family. I send everyone to her!"

“One hour of working with Suze was more powerful than over 10 years of working with other therapists.”

“THIS has been the most powerful week in their lives. Everything I imagined here came true. 100%.”

“I thought I knew what happiness feels like, until now. I feel like I have felt true happiness flowing through my veins for the first time in my life!”

“The most precious gift I have ever giving myself”

“This is the one week I will gift myself every year from now on for the rest of my life”

“I don’t know what Suze does, and I don’t care. I NEED this in my life. Everyone needs this in their life.”

“Just to be part of this deeply personal deeply intimate experience that Suze has created for us together with her entire family is SO special. Not many people in today’s world are so open, transparent and present. It is a gift just to be around that.”

“Extremely powerful work, but not for the faint of heart”

“I thought I knew what ‘letting go’ was until I met Suze!”

“I am blown away, I seriously never could have expected anything this deep in one week”

“The most profound thing ever experienced (despite years of therapy)”

“25 years of being a psychotherapist myself and I have never experienced this deep level of work”

“Suze finds connections and wounds I never even KNEW where there, let alone that they could have been attached to these areas”

“Suze never fails to answer questions I never knew I had, and that make all things I was trying to solve irrelevant. A true gift.”

“I need this woman in my life. I buy everything she offers and send all my friends.”

Would you stay in prison if the door was wide open?

Joining The Divine Warrior retreat will provide you with all the tools to BE the person you Soul set out to be and LIVE the life you were meant to live from day 1.

This week is not for everyone.

It is for people who are willing to BE who they were born to be. That means that it is for people who know that trauma is a lifelong journey of unfolding, where your Soul will lead your path. Not a path of 'knowing' or 'getting there' or 'being able to do it all alone'.

There is no list of prerequisites we need to evaluate. We have had people from all walks of life join. Men, woman, teenagers, grandmothers of 76, people on government support and millionaires.

We just need to know who you are upfront so that we know what you need and understand if we can keep the group so safe that everyone will get what they need.

To see if you are a fit, click below and book your call with Sophie, one of our team-coaches, and ask any questions you might have about the program or logistics:

Click this link here if you want to say yes and book, but still have hesitations. Sophie will help you work through what is best for you. This retreat is for people who feel called. We will never try to get you in the room if that is not you, and we are happy to have a chat to reveal together where you might have any questions or doubts!

We do have VERY limited spaces available, so don't miss your chance. I cannot wait to work with you and support you and your practice.
