Leadership Miracles Retreat

A five day seminar to understand leadership from who YOU are.

Businesses need leadership. But this is not just about leading your business stuff, your clients or your team. This is about your personal leadership.

If your leadership accidentally tries to 'lead so you don;t have to feel unsafe' then your business is built on surviving. In order to level UP, it needs to be built on THRIVING. Which means it needs to be built on how you can constantly navigate on your own fears, your own Souls energy, and even use your trauma and nervous system to open wider. Share more. Go deeper. Become more attractive. Lead clients.

Over five days, we will develop an understanding of leadership, from a sense of your nervous system, people around you, interaction, how to constantly reconnect with your true Self and what YOU need and what your business needs from you.

Important: This seminar is a teaching seminar but also a DEEP personal development seminar. We will do a lot of deep processing during the seminar around who you are, shame, fear, your needs, your voice and what it feels like to fully be supported being you!
